

What Membership Offers

At the national, provincial and local levels, LDA provides cutting edge information on learning disabilities, practical solutions, and a comprehensive network of resources. LDA provides support to people with learning disabilities, their families, teachers and other professionals. Joining the Learning Disabilities Association of Durham Region automatically makes you a member of the provincial/territorial and national organization.

Learning Disabilities of Durham Region – Local benefits:

- E-blasts about upcoming meetings, news releases and research updates
- Information and Referral on local resources, programs, services and contacts in your community.
- LDADR's Web site with access to information on learning disabilities, chapter meetings and local events
- Advocacy through assistance and information
- Access to a borrowing library with current resources, books and videos and DVDs

Learning Disabilities of Ontario (LDAO) - Provincial/territorial benefits:

- Provincial- LDAO newsletter Communiqué published 2 times a year
- LDAO's comprehensive Web site featuring information, services, workshops, public policy, news and events
- Information via a toll-free call-in line (877-238-5322)
- Voting rights at local and provincial member meetings

Learning Disabilities Association of Canada (LDAC) – National benefits:

- Affiliation with the Learning Disabilities Association of Canada (LDAC), giving you a national voice and a network of other Learning Disabilities Associations across Canada. (over 50 in 10 provinces and territory)
- National- LDAC's comprehensive national newsletter published three times a year
- Videos, DVDs and other materials produced by LDAC are available for purchase through a national LD Bookstore on the web
- LDAC's comprehensive Web site featuring access to current, information on learning disabilities
- Advocacy on pending national and federal legislation and/or programs which may affect individuals with learning disabilities and/or their families.